* "[1A) Every candidate submitting nomination under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to be qualified to be elected to fill that post unless he submits, along with such nomination, the details regarding his educational qualification, criminal cases in which he is involved at the time of submission of nomination, property owned by him and other members of his family, liabilities including arrears due from him to any Public Sector Undertaking or Government or Local Self Government Institutions and whether disqualifies for defection under the Kerala Local Authorities (Prohibition of Defection) Act, 1999 in the form and manner as may be prescribed.]"

(2) In a constituency where the seat is reserved for Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe a candidate shall not be deemed to be qualified to be chosen to fill that seat unless his nomination paper contains a declaration by him specifying the particular caste or tribe of which he is a member.

⁴⁵ Substituted by Act 7 of 1995.

* Inserted by Act 30 of 2005

(3) Where the candidate is a person who, having held any office referred to in clause (K) of section 34 has been dismissed or removed and period of five years has not elapsed since the dismissal or removal such person shall not be deemed to be duly nominated as a candidate unless his nomination paper is accompanied by a certificate issued in the prescribed manner by the State Election Commission to the effect that he has not been dismissed or removed for corruption, or disloyalty.

(4) On the presentation of a nomination paper, the returning officer shall satisfy himself that the names and electoral roll numbers of the candidate and his proposer as entered in the nomination paper are the same as those entered in the electoral rolls;

Provided that no misnomer or inaccurate description or clerical, technical or printing error in regard to the name of the candidate or his proposer or any other person, or in regard to any place, mentioned in the electoral roll or the nomination paper and no clerical, technical or printing error in regard to the electoral roll numbers of any such person in the electoral roll or the nomination paper, shall affect the full operation of the electoral roll or the nomination paper with respect to such person or place in any case where the description in regard to the name of the person or place is such as to be commonly understood; and the returning officer shall permit any such misnomer or inaccurate description or clerical, technical or printing error to be corrected and where necessary direct that any such misnomer or inaccurate description, or clerical, technical or printing error in the electoral roll or in the nomination paper shall be overlooked.

(5) Where the candidate is an elector of a different constituency a copy of the electoral roll of that constituency or of the relevant part thereof or a certified copy of the relevant entries in such roll shall unless it has been filed along, with the nomination paper, be produced before the returning officer at the time of scrutiny.

(6) Nothing in the section shall prevent any candidate from being nominated by more than one nomination paper:

Provided that not more than three nomination papers shall be presented by or on behalf of any candidate or accepted by the returning officer.

53. Deposits.- (1) A candidate shall not be deemed to be duly nominated for election from a constituency of a panchayat at any level unless he deposits or causes to be deposited such sum, as may be prescribed, and different rates may be prescribed or different levels of the panchayats. In the case of candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, the amount of deposit shall be fifty per cent, of the amount prescribed for such constituency:

Provided that where a candidate has been nominated by more than one nomination paper, not more than one deposit shall be required of him under this sub-section.

(2) Any sum required to be deposited under sub-section (1) shall not be deemed to have been deposited under that sub-section unless at the time of delivery of the nomination paper under sub-section (1) of section 52, the candidate has either deposited or caused to be deposited that sum with the returning officer in cash or enclosed with the nomination paper a receipt showing that the said sum has been deposited by him or on his behalf in the office of such authority as may be notified by the Government.

54. Notice of nominations and the time and place for their security. - The returning officer shall, on receiving the nomination paper under sub-section (1) of section 52, inform the person or persons delivering the same, of the date, time and place fixed for the scrutiny of nominations and shall enter on the nomination paper its serial number, and shall sign thereon a certificate stating the date on which and the hour at which the nomination paper has been delivered to him; and shall, as soon as may be thereafter, cause to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office a notice of the nomination containing descriptions both of the candidate and of the proposer as contained in the nomination paper.

55. Scrutiny of nominations. - (1) On the date fixed for the scrutiny of nominations under section 49, the candidates, their election agents, one proposer of each candidate and one other person duly authorised in writing by each candidate, but no other person, may attend at such time and place as the returning officer may appoint; and the returning officer shall give them all reasonable facilities for examining the nomination papers of all candidates which have been delivered within the time and in the manner laid down in section 52.

(2) The returning officer shall then examine the nomination papers and shall decide all objections which may be made to any nomination and may, either on such objection or on his own motion, after such summary inquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary, reject any nomination on any of the following grounds, namely: -

- (a) that on the date fixed for the scrutiny of nominations, the candidate is either not qualified or is disqualified for being chosen to fill the seat under any of the provisions of this Act;
- (b) that there has been failure to comply with any of the provisions of section 52 or section 53; or
- (c) if he is satisfied that the signature of the candidate or the proposer on the nomination paper is not genuine.

(3) Nothing contained in clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (2) shall be deemed to authorise the rejection of the nomination of any candidate on the ground of any irregularity in respect of a nomination paper, if the candidate has been duly nominated by means of another nomination paper in respect of which no irregularity has been committed.

(4) The returning officer shall not reject any nomination paper on the ground of any defect, which is not of a substantial nature.

(5) The returning officer shall hold the scrutiny on the date appointed in this behalf under clause (b) of section 49 and shall not allow any adjournment of the proceedings except when such proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by riot or open violence or by cause beyond his control;

Provided that in case an objection is raised by the returning officer or is made by any other person the candidate concerned may be allowed time to rebut it not later than the next working day but one following the date fixed for scrutiny, and the returning officer shall record his decision on the date to which the proceedings have been adjourned.

(6) The returning officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting the same and, if the nomination paper is rejected, shall record in writing a brief statement of his reasons for such rejection.

(7) For the purpose of this section, a certified copy of an entry in the electoral roll for the time being in force of a constituency shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the person referred to in that entry is an elector for that constituency, unless it is proved that he is subject to a disqualification mentioned in section 17.

(8) Immediately after all the nomination papers have been scrutinised and decisions accepting or rejecting the same have been recorded, the returning officer shall prepare a list of validly nominated candidates and affix it on his notice board.

56. Withdrawal of candidature. - (1) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by a notice in writing which shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed and shall be subscribed by him delivered before three O'clock in the afternoon on the day fixed under clause (c) of Section 49 to the returning officer either by such candidate in person or by his proposer, or election agent who has been authorised in this behalf in writing by such candidate;

Provided that if that day has been notified by the Government as a day to be observed as a holiday in Government offices, the notice of withdrawal shall be considered as having been delivered in due time if it is delivered before three O'clock in the afternoon on the next succeeding day which is not a holiday so notified.

(2) No person who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under sub-section (1) shall be allowed to cancel the notice.

(3) The returning officer shall, on being satisfied as to the genuineness of a notice of withdrawal and the identity of the person delivering it under sub-section (1), cause the notice to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office and in the office of the concerned panchayat.

57. Publication of list of contesting candidates. - (1) Immediately after the expiry of the period within which candidatures may be withdrawn under sub-section (1) of section 56, the returning officer shall prepare and publish in such form and manner as may be prescribed a list of contesting candidates.

(2) The said list shall contain the names in Malayalam alphabetical order and the addresses of the contesting candidates as given in the nomination papers together with such other particulars, as may be prescribed.

58. Election agents. - A candidate at an election may appoint, in the prescribed manner any one person other than himself to be his election agent and when any such appointment is made notice of the appointment shall be given in the prescribed manner, to the returning officer.

59. Disqualification for being an election agent. - Any person who is for the time being disqualified under this Act for being a member of a panchayat shall be disqualified for being an election agent at any election.

60. Revocation of the appointment or death of an election agent. - (1) Any revocation of the appointment of an election agent, shall be signed by the candidate and shall operate from the date on which it is lodged with the returning officer.

(2) In the event of such a revocation or of the death of an election agent whether that even occurs before or during the election, or after the election but before the account of the candidate's election expenses has been lodged in accordance with the provisions of section 86, the candidate may appoint in the prescribed manner another person to be his election agent and when such appointment is made notice of the appointment shall be given in the prescribed manner to the returning officer.

61. Functions of election agents. - An election agent may perform such functions in connection with the election as are authorised by or under this Act to be performed by an election agent.

62. Appointment of polling agents. - A contesting candidate or his election agent may appoint, in the prescribed manner, such number of agents, and relief agents, as may be prescribed, to such number of agents, and relief agents, as may be prescribed, to act as polling agents of such candidate at each polling station provided under section 45.

63. Appointment of Counting Agents. - A contesting candidate or his election agent may appoint, in the prescribed manner one or more persons; but not exceeding such number, as may be prescribed, to be present as his counting agent or agents at the counting of votes, and when any such appointment is made notice of the appointment shall be given in the prescribed manner to the returning Officer.

64. Revocation of the appointment or death of a polling agent or a counting agent. - (1) Any revocation of the appointment of a polling agent shall be signed by the candidate or his election agent and shall operate from the date on which it is lodged with such officer as may be prescribed and in the event of such a revocation or of the death of a polling agent before the close of the poll, the candidate or his election agent may appoint, in the prescribed manner, another polling agent at any time before the poll is closed and shall forthwith give notice of such appointment, in the prescribed manner, to such officer, as may be prescribed.

(2) Any revocation of the appointment of a counting agent shall be signed by the candidate or his election agent and shall operate from the date on which it is lodged with the Returning Officer, and in the event of such a revocation or of the death of a counting agent, before the commencement of the counting of votes, the candidate or his election agent may appoint, in the prescribed manner another counting agent at any time before the counting of votes is commenced and shall forthwith give notice of such appointment, in the prescribed manner, to the Returning Officer.

65. Functions of polling agents and counting agents. - (1) A polling agent may perform such functions in connection with the poll as are authorised by or under this Act to be performed by a polling agent.

(2) A counting agent may perform such functions in connection with the counting of votes as are authorised by or under this Act to be performed by a counting agent.

66. Attendance of a contesting candidate or his election agent at polling stations and performance by him of the functions of a polling agent or counting agent. - (1) At every election where a poll is taken, each contesting candidate at such election and his election agent shall have a right to be present at any polling station provided under section 45 for the taking of the poll.

(2) A contesting candidate or his election agent may himself do any act or thing which any polling agent or the counting agent of such contesting candidate, if appointed, would have been authorised by or under this Act to do, or may assist any polling agent or the counting agent of such contesting candidate in doing any such act or thing.

67. Non-attendance of polling or counting agents. - Where any act or thing is required or authorised by or under this Act to be done in the presence of the polling or counting agents, the non-attendance of any such agent or agents at the time and place appointed for the purpose shall not, if the act or thing is otherwise duly done, invalidate the act or thing done.

68. Death of candidate before poll.-If a candidate whose nomination has been found valid on scrutiny under section 55 and who has not withdrawn his candidature under section 56 dies and a report of his death is received before the publication of the list of contesting candidates under section 57, or if a contesting candidate dies and a report of his death is received before the commencement of the poll, the Returning Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate, countermand the poll and report the fact to the State Election Commission and also to the Government and all proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced a new in all respects as if for a new election:

Provided that no further nomination shall be necessary in the case of a person who was a contesting candidate at the time of the countermanding of the poll:

Provided further that no person who has given a notice of withdrawal of his candidature under sub-section (1) of section 56 before the countermanding of the poll shall be ⁴⁶[intelligible] for being nominated as a candidate for the election after such countermanding.

69. Procedure in contested and uncontested elections. - (1) if the number of contesting candidates for a constituency is more than one, a poll shall be taken.

⁴⁶ Substituted by Act 7 of 1995.

(2) If there is only one candidate for a constituency, the Returning Officer shall declare him to be duly elected.

(3) If there is no candidate, election proceedings shall be started afresh for filling up the vacancy in all respects as it for a new election.

70. Fixing time for poll. - The State Election Commission shall fix the hours during which the poll will be taken, and the hours so fixed shall be published in such manner, as may be prescribed:

Provided that the total period allotted on any one-day or polling at an election to a constituency shall not be less than eight hours between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m.

71. Adjournment of poll in emergencies.-(1) If at an election the proceedings at any polling station provided under section 45 for the poll are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or open violence, or if at an election it is not possible to take the poll at any polling station or such place on account of any natural calamity, or any other sufficient cause, the Presiding Officer or such polling station or the Returning Officer presiding over such place, as the case may be, shall announce an adjournment of the poll to a date to be notified later, and where the poll is so adjourned by a presiding officer, he shall forthwith inform the Returning Officer concerned.

(2) Whenever a poll is adjourned under sub-section (1), the Returning Officer shall immediately report the circumstances to the appropriate authority and the State Election Commission, and shall, as soon as may be, with the previous approval of the State Election Commission, appoint the day on which the poll shall commence, and fix the polling station or place at which, and the hours during which the poll will be taken, and shall not count the votes cast at such election until such adjourned poll shall have been completed.

(3) In every such case as aforesaid, the returning officer shall notify in such manner as the State Election Commission may direct the date, place and hours of polling fixed under sub-section (2).

72. Fresh poll in the case of destruction, etc. of ballot boxes. - (1) If at any election -

(a) any ballot box used at a polling station or at a place fixed for the poll is unlawfully taken out of the custody of the presiding officer or the returning officer, or is accidentally or intentionally destroyed or lost, or is damaged or tampered with, to such an extent, that the result of the poll at that polling station or place cannot be ascertained, or

(b) any such error or irregularity in procedure as is likely to vitiate the poll is committed at a polling station or at a place fixed for the poll, the returning officer shall forthwith report the matter to the State Election Commission.

(2) Thereupon the State Election Commission shall, after taking all material circumstances into account, either –

- (a) declare the poll at that polling station or place to be void, appoint a day and fix the hours, for taking a fresh poll at that polling station or place and notify the day so appointed and the hours so fixed in such manner as it may deem fit, or
 - (b) if satisfied that the result of a fresh poll at that polling station or place will not, in any way, affect the result of the election or that the error or irregularity in procedure is not material, issue such directions to the returning officer as it may deem proper for the further conduct and completion of the election.
- (3) The provisions, of this Act and of any rules or orders made hereunder shall apply to every such fresh poll as they apply to the original poll.

73. Countermanding of election or adjournment of poll on the ground of booth capturing. - (1) If at any election –

- (a) Booth-capturing has taken place at a polling station or at a place fixed for the poll (hereafter in this section referred to as a place) in such a manner that the result of the poll at that polling station or place cannot be ascertained; or
 - (b) booth-capturing takes place in any place for counting of votes in such a manner that the result of the counting at that place cannot be ascertained, the returning officer shall forthwith report the matter to the State Election Commission.
- (2) The State Election Commission shall, on receipt of a report from the returning officer under sub-section (1) and after taking all material circumstances into account, either –
- (a) declare that the poll at that polling station or place be void, appoint a day, and fix the hours, for taking fresh poll at that polling station or place and notify the date so appointed and hours so fixed in such manner as it may deem fit; or
 - (b) if satisfied that in view of the large number of polling stations or place involved in booth-capturing, the result of the election is likely to be affected, or that booth-capturing had affected counting of votes in such a manner as to affect the result of the election, countermand the election in that constituency.

Explanation. - In this section, “booth-capturing” shall have the same meaning as in section 137.

74. Manner of voting at election. - At every election where a poll is taken votes shall be given by ballot in such manner as may be prescribed, and no votes shall be received by proxy.

75. Special procedure for preventing personation of electors. – With a view to preventing personation of electors provision may be made by rules made under this Act, -

- (a) for the marking, with indelible ink, of the thumb or any other finger of every elector who applies for a ballot paper or ballot papers for the purpose of voting at a polling station before delivery of such paper or papers to him;

- (b) for prohibiting the delivery of any ballot paper to any person for voting at a polling station if at the time such person applies for such paper he has already such a mark on his thumb or any other finger.

76. Right to vote. – (1) No person who is not, and except as expressly provided by this Act, every person who is, for the time being entered in the electoral roll of a constituency shall be entitled to vote in that constituency.

(2) No person shall vote at an election in any constituency if he is subject to any of the disqualifications referred to in section 17.

(3) No person shall vote at a general election in more than one constituency of the same level, and if a person votes in more than one such constituency, his votes in all such constituencies shall be void.

(4) No person shall at any election vote in the same constituency more than once, notwithstanding that his name may have been registered in the electoral roll for that constituency more than once, and if he does so vote, all his votes in that constituency shall be void.

(5) No person shall vote at any election if he is confined in a prison whether under a sentence of imprisonment or transportation or otherwise, or is in the lawful custody of the police:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to a person subjected to preventive detention under any law for the time being in force.

77. Counting of votes. - At every election where a poll is taken votes shall be counted by, or under the supervision and direction of, the Returning Officer and each contesting candidate, his election agent and his counting agents shall have a right to be present at the time of counting.

78. Destruction, loss etc. of ballot papers at the time of counting. - 1) If at any time before the counting of votes is completed any ballot papers used at a polling station or at a place fixed for the poll are unlawfully taken out of the custody of the returning officer or are accidentally or intentionally destroyed or lost or are damaged or tampered with, to such an extent that, the result of the poll at that polling station or place cannot be ascertained, the returning officer shall forthwith report the matter to the State Election Commission.

(2) Thereupon, the State Election Commission shall, after taking all material circumstances into account, either –

- (a) direct that the counting of votes shall be stopped, declare the poll at that polling station or place to be void, appoint a day, and fix the hours, for taking a fresh poll at that polling station or place and notify the date so appointed and hours so fixed in such manner as it may deem fit, or
- (b) If satisfied that the result of a fresh poll at that polling station or place will not, in any way, affect the result of the election, issue such directions to the returning officer as it may deem proper for the resumption and completion of the counting and for the further conduct and completion of the election in relation to which the votes have been counted.

(3) The provisions of this Act and of any rules or orders made there under shall apply to every such fresh poll as they apply to the original poll.

79. Equality of votes. - If, after the counting of the votes is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates, and the addition of one vote will entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, the returning officer shall forthwith decide between those candidates by lot, and proceed as if the candidate on whom the lot falls had received an additional vote.

80. Declaration of results.- When the counting of the votes has been completed, the returning officer shall, in the absence of any direction by the State Election Commission to the contrary, forthwith declare the result of the election in the manner provided by this Act or the rules made there under.

81. Report of the result. - As soon as may be after the result of an election has been declared, the returning officer shall report the result to the panchayat concerned, to the State Election Commission and to the Government, and the State Election Commission shall cause to be published in the Gazette the declarations containing the names of the elected candidates. The name or names of the elected candidate or candidates shall also be published on the notice board of the panchayat concerned.

82. Date of election of candidate. - For the purpose of this Act, the date on which a candidate is declared by the returning officer under the provisions of section 69, or section 80, to be elected to a panchayat shall be the date of election of that candidate.

83. Publication of results of general elections to the panchayat. - Where a general election is held for the purpose of constituting or reconstituting a panchayat there shall be notified by the State Election Commission in the Gazette, as soon as may be, after the results of the elections in all the constituencies, other than those in which the poll could not be taken for any reason on the date originally fixed under clause (d) of section 49 or for which the time for completion of the election has been extended under the provisions of section 143, have been declared by the returning officer under the provisions of the section 69 or, as the case may be, section 80, the names of the members elected for those constituencies and upon the publication of such notification the members shall be deemed to be duly elected;

Provided that the publication of such notification shall not be deemed –

(a) to prelude -

(1) the taking of the poll and the completion of the election in any panchayat constituency or constituencies in which the poll could not be taken for any reason on the date originally fixed under clause (e) of section 49; or

(2) the completion of the election in any panchayat constituency or constituencies for which time has been extended under the provisions of section 143;

(b) to affect the duration of the panchayat, if any, functioning immediately before the issue of the said notification.

⁴⁷83A. Cessation of membership. - (1) No person, shall be a member in more than one level in a Panchayat and a person who is elected to more than one level in a Panchayat shall, within fifteen days of his being so elected intimate to the State Election Commission, in writing, information regarding the Panchayat in respect of which he wishes to be a member and the panchayat in respect of which he wishes to vacate his membership and on his failure in so intimating, his membership in all the levels of the panchayats to which he has been elected shall be deemed to have ceased.

(2) As soon as the intimation in writing is received from a person under sub-section (1), the State Election Commission shall declare that he has by such intimation vacated his membership in respect of all the panchayats except the panchayat in respect of which he has intimated his wish to be a member.

(3) When a person being a member of a panchayat at one level is also elected as member at another panchayat level, unless he resigns his membership of the panchayat of which he is a member within fifteen days from the date on which he is so elected, his membership in the panchayat to which he is so elected shall cease;

(4) Nothing contained in this section shall be a bar for a President of a Village Panchayat continuing as a member in a Block Panchayat or for a Block Panchayat President continuing as a member in a District Panchayat under clause (b) of sub sub-section (1) of section 8 or as the case may be, under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 9.

(5) If any dispute arises in respect of vacating of membership or cessation of membership under this section, it shall be referred to the State Election Commission for decision and the Commission's decision thereon shall be final.

84. Bye-elections to fill casual vacancies. - (1) When a panchayat at any level is dissolved before its duration specified in Article 243E or when the seat of a member elected to a panchayat becomes vacant or is declared vacant or his election to the panchayat is declared void, the State Election Commission shall, subject to the provisions of – sub-section (2) by a notification in the Gazette, call upon the constituencies in such panchayat or the constituency concerned, as the case may be, to elect members or member for the purpose of constituting the panchayat or filling the vacancy, as the case may be, before such date as may be specified in the notifications and the provisions of this Act and of the rules and orders made there under shall apply as far as may be, in relation to such election.

(2) If the vacancy so caused be a vacancy in a seat reserved in any such constituency for the Scheduled Castes or for Scheduled Tribes or for women the notification issued under sub-section (1) shall specify that the person to fill that seat shall belong to the Scheduled Castes or to Scheduled Tribes or be a women, as the case may be,

85. Account of election expenses and maximum thereof. - (1) Every candidate at an election shall, either by himself or by his election agent, keep a separate and correct account of all expenditure in connection with the election incurred or authorised by him or by his election agent between the date on which he has been nominated and the date of declaration of the result thereof (both dates inclusive).

Explanation 1. – any expenditure incurred or authorised in connection with the election of a candidate by a political party or by any other association or body or persons or by any individual (other than the candidate or his election agent)- shall not be deemed to be expenditure in connection with the election incurred or authorised by the candidate or by his election agent for the purposes of this sub-section.

Explanation 2. - For the removal of doubt, it is hereby declared that any expenditure incurred in respect of any arrangements made, facilities provided or any other act or thing done by any person in the service of the Government and belonging to any of the classes mentioned in clause (8) of section 120 in the discharge or purported discharge of his official duty as mentioned in the proviso to that clause shall not be deemed to be expenditure in connection with the election incurred or authorised by a candidate or by his election agent for the purpose of this sub-section.

(2) The account shall contain such particulars, as may prescribed.

(3) The total of the said expenditure shall not exceed such amount as may be prescribed.

⁴⁸86. *Lodging of accounts [with the officer authorised by the State Election Commission]. - Every contesting candidate at an election shall, within 30 days from the date of election of the returned candidate lodge with the officer authorised by the State Election Commission, an account of his election expenses along with the connected records which shall be a true copy of the account kept by him or by his election agent under Section 85. The said officer shall, as soon as may be, immediately after the expiry of the said period of 30 days, make available to the officer appointed by the Commission, the accounts of election expenses received by him along with a list of candidates who did not lodge the accounts of election expenses prescribed by the Commission.

(2) Where more election petitions than one are presented to the court in respect of the same election, the court may, in its discretion, try them separately or in one or more groups.

(3) Any candidate not already a respondent shall, upon application made by him to the Court within fourteen days from the date of commencement of the trial and subject to any order as to security for costs which may be made by the court, be entitled to be joined as a respondent.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this sub-section and section 100 the trial of a petition shall be deemed to commence on the date fixed for the respondents to appear before the court and answer the claim or claims made in the petition.

(4) The court may upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as it may deem fit, allow the particulars of any corrupt practice alleged in the petition to be amended or amplified in such manner, as may in its opinion be necessary for ensuring a fair and effective trial of the petition, but shall not allow any amendment of the petition which will have the effect of introducing particulars of a corrupt practice not previously alleged in the petition.

(5) Every election petition shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and shall be disposed of within six months from the date on which the election petition is presented to the Court for trial.

94. Procedure before the court. - (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of any rules made there under, every election petition shall be tried by the court, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the procedure applicable under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908) to the trial of suits:

Provided that the court shall have the discretion to refuse for reasons to be recorded in writing, to examine any witness or witnesses if it is of the opinion that the evidence of such witness or witnesses is not material for the decision of the petition or that the Party tendering such witness or witnesses is doing so in frivolous ground or with a view to delay the proceedings.

(2) The provisions of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Central Act 1 of 1872), shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be deemed to apply in all respects to the trial of any election petition.

95. Documentary evidence. - Notwithstanding anything in any enactment to the contrary, no document shall be inadmissible in evidence at the trial of an election petition on the ground that it is not duly stamped or registered.

96. Secrecy of voting not be infringed. - No witness or other person shall be required to state for whom he has voted at an election.

97. Answering of criminating questions and certificate of indemnity. - (1) No witness shall be excused from answering any question as to any matter relevant to a matter in issue in the trial of an election petition upon the ground that the answer to such question may criminate or may tend to criminate or that it may expose or may tend to expose him to any penalty or forfeiture:

Provided that –

- (a) a witness, who answers truly all questions which he is required to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity from the court;
- (b) an answer given by a witness to a question put by or before the court shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the evidence, be admissible in evidence against in any civil or criminal proceeding.

(2) When a certificate of indemnity has been granted to any witness, it may be pleaded by him in any court and shall be a full and complete defence to or upon any charge under chapter IXA of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act 45 of 1860), or Chapter XI of this Act arising out of the matter to which such certificate relates, but it shall not be deemed to relieve him from any disqualification in connection with an election imposed by this Act or any other law.

98. Expenses of witnesses. – the reasonable expenses incurred by any person in attending to give evidence may be allowed by the court to such person and shall, unless the court otherwise directs, be deemed to be part of the costs.

99. Recrimination when seat claimed. - (1) When in an election petition a declaration that any candidate other than the returned candidate has been duly elected is claimed, the returned candidate or any other party may give evidence to prove that the election of such candidate would have been void if he had been the returned candidate and a petition had been presented calling in question his election:

Provided that the returned candidate or such other party, as aforesaid shall not be entitled to give such evidence unless he has, within fourteen days from the date of commencement of the trial, given notice to the court of his intention to do so and has also given the security and the further security referred to in section 115 and 116 respectively.

(2) Every notice referred to in sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by the statement and particulars required by section 91 in the case of an election petition and shall be signed and verified in like manner.

100. Decision of the court. - At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition the court shall make an order –

- (a) dismissing the election petition; or
- (b) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void; or
- (c) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void and the petitioner or any other candidate to have been duly elected.

101. Other orders to be made by the court. - At the time of making an order under section 100, the court shall also make an order -

- (a) where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election, recording –
 - (i) a finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have committed at the election, and the nature of that corrupt practice; and
 - (ii) the names of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that any practice; and
- (b) fixing the total amount of costs payable and specifying the persons by and to whom costs shall be paid:

Provided that a person who is not a party to the petition shall not be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) unless –

- (i) he has been given notice to appear before the court and to show cause why he should not be so named; and
- (ii) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross examining any witness who has already been examined by the court and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.

102. Grounds for declaring election to be void. - (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection

(2) if the court is of opinion –

- (a) that on the date of his election a returned candidate was not qualified, or was disqualified, to be chosen to fill the seat under this Act; or
- (b) that any corrupt practice has been committed by a returned candidate or his election agent or by any other person with the consent of a returned candidate or his election agent; or
- (c) that any nomination has been improperly rejected; or

[(ca) that the details furnished by the elected candidates under sub-section (1A) of section 52 were fake; or]

- (d) that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns a returned candidate, has been materially affected –
 - (i) by the improper acceptance of any nomination, or
 - (ii) by any corrupt practice committed in the interests of the returned candidate by an agent other than his election agent; or
 - (iii) by the improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void; or
 - (iv) by any non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or of any rules or orders made there under, the court shall declare that the election of the returned candidate to be void.

(2) if in the opinion of the court a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent, other than his election agent, of any corrupt practice but the court is satisfied. –

- (a) that no such corrupt practice was committed at the election by the candidate or his election agent, and every such corrupt practice was committed contrary to the orders, and without the consent, of the candidate or his election agent;
- (b) that the candidate and his election agent took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt practices at the election; and
- (c) that in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt practice on the part of the candidate or any of his agents, then the court may decide that the election of the returned candidate is not void.

Explanation. - In this section the term ‘agent’ has the same meaning as in section 120.

103. Grounds for which a candidate other than the returned candidate may be declared to have been elected. – If any person who has lodged a petition has, in addition to calling in question the election of the returned candidate, claimed a declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected and the court is of opinion –

- (a) that in fact the petitioner or such other candidate received a majority of the valid votes; or
- (b) that but for the votes obtained by the returned candidate by corrupt practices the petitioner or such other candidate would have obtained a majority of the valid votes, the court shall after declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void declare the petitioner or such other candidate, as the case may be, to have been duly elected.

104. Procedure in case of an equality of votes. - If during the trial of an election petition it appears that there is an equality of votes between any candidates at the election and that the addition of one vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, then-

- (a) any decision made by the returning officer under the provisions of this Act shall, in so far as it determines the question between those candidates, be effective also for the purpose of the petition; and
- (b) in so far as that question is not determined by such a decision the court shall decide between them by lot and proceed as if the one on whom the lot then falls and received an additional vote.

105. Communication of orders of the court. - The court shall, as soon as may be, after the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, intimate the substance of the order to the State Election Commission and the President of the Panchayat concerned and, as soon as may be, thereafter, shall send to the State Election Commission an authenticated copy of the order.

106. Transmission of order to the appropriate authority etc., and its publication. – As soon as may be after the receipt of any order made by the court under section 100 or section 101, the State Election Commission shall forward copies of the order to the President of the panchayat concerned and, shall cause the order to be published in such manner as the State Election Commission may deem fit.

107. Effect of orders of the court. - (1) An order under section 100 or section 101 shall take effect as soon as it is pronounced by the court.

(2) Where by an order under section 101 the election of a returned candidate is declared to be void, acts and proceedings in which that returned candidate has, before the date thereof participated as a member of a panchayat shall not be invalidated by a reason of that order, nor shall such candidate be subjected to any liability or penalty on the ground of such participation.

108. Withdrawal of election petitions. – (1) An election petition may be withdrawn only by leave of the court, if an application for its withdrawal is made.

(2) Where an application for withdrawal is made under sub-section (1), notice thereof fixing a date for the hearing of the application shall be given to all other parties to the petition and shall be published in the office of the panchayat concerned.

109. Procedure for withdrawal of election petition. - (1) if there are more petitioners than one, no application to withdraw an election petition shall be made except with the consent in writing of all the petitioners.

(2) No application for withdrawal shall be granted if, in the opinion of the court and if the court is satisfied that such application has been induced by any bargain or consideration which ought not to be allowed.

(3) If the application is granted –

- (a) the petitioner shall be ordered to pay the costs of the respondents thereto for incurred or such portion thereof as the court may think fit;
- (b) the court shall direct that the notice of withdrawal shall be published in the office of the court and also in the office of the panchayat concerned;
- (c) a person who might himself have been a petitioner may, within fourteen days of such publication, apply to be substituted as petitioner in the place of the party withdrawing, and upon compliance with the conditions, if any, as to security, shall be entitled to be so substituted, and to continue the proceedings upon such terms as the court may deem fit.

110. Report of withdrawal by the court to the State Election Commission. – When an application for withdrawal is granted by the court and no person has been substituted as petitioner under clause (c) of sub-section (3) of section 109, in the place of the party withdrawing, the court shall report the fact to the State Election Commission.

111. Abatement of election petitions. - (1) An election petition shall abate only on the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners.

(2) Where an election petition abates under sub-section (1), notice of the abatement shall be published in the Office of the Court, in the Office of the State Election Commission and in the Office of the panchayat concerned.

(3) Any person who might himself have been a petitioner may, within fourteen days of such publication, apply to be substituted as petitioner and upon compliance with the conditions, if any, as to security, shall be entitled to be so substituted and to continue the proceedings upon such terms as the court may deem fit.

112. Abatement or substitution on death of respondent. - If before the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the sole respondent dies or gives notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition or any of the respondents dies or gives such notice and there is no other respondent who is opposing the petition, the court shall cause notice of such even to be published in the Office of the Court, in the Office of the State Election Commission and in the office of the Panchayat concerned and thereupon any person who might have been a petitioner may, within fourteen days of such publication apply to be substituted in place of such respondent to oppose the petition, and shall be entitled to continue the proceedings upon such terms as the court may think fit.

113. Appeals. – (1) Any person aggrieved, by an order made by the court under section 100 or section 101, may prefer an appeal, on any question of law or of fact, -

- (a) before the District Court on the decision of the Munsiff's Court; and
- (b) before the High Court on the decision of the District Court;

(2) the Government shall, in consultation with the High Court notify the appropriate courts in the Gazette.

(3) Every appeal under this section shall be preferred within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of the court under section 100 or section 101:

Provided that the Appellate Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

114. Procedure in appeal. – (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the rules, if any, made there under the District Court or the High Court may dispose of the appeal in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908) for the hearing of appeals and the decision of the Court in the appeal shall be final:

Provided that such appeals shall be disposed of, as far as possible within six months from the date of filing of such appeals.

(2) As soon as an appeal is decided, the Appellate Court shall intimate the substance of the decision to the State Election Commission and the President of the Panchayat concerned and as soon as may be, thereafter shall send to the State Election Commission an authenticated copy of the decision; and upon its receipt, the State Election Commission shall –

- (a) forward copies thereof to the authorities to which copies of the order of the court were forwarded under section 106; and
- (b) cause the decision to be published in such manner as the State Election Commission may deem fit.

115. Security for costs. – (1) At the time of presenting an election petition, the petitioner shall deposit in the court a sum of five hundred rupees as security or enclose with the petition a Government treasury receipt showing that the deposit of the said amount has been made by him in a Government treasury in favour of the Musiff or the District Judge, as the case may be, as security for the costs of the petition.

(2) During the course of the trial of an election petition, the court may at any time call upon the petitioner to give such further security for costs as it may direct and if the petitioner fails to do so inspite of allowing sufficient time, dismiss the petition.

116. Security for costs from a respondent. – No person shall be entitled to be joined as a respondent under sub-section (3) of section 93 unless he has given such security for costs as the court may direct.

117. Costs. – Costs shall be in the discretion of the court, provided that where a petition is dismissed under clause (a) of section 100, the returned candidate shall be entitled to the costs incurred by him in contesting the petition and accordingly the court shall make an order for costs in favour of the returned candidate.

118. Payment of costs out of security deposits and return of such deposits. – (1) If in any order as to costs under the provisions of this chapter there is a direction for payment of costs by any party to any person, such costs shall, if they have not been already paid, be paid in full, or so far as possible, out of the security deposit and the further security deposit, if any, made by such party under this chapter on an application made in writing in that behalf within a period of one year from the date of such order to the court by the person in whose favour the costs have been awarded.

(2) If there is any balance left out of any of the said security deposits, after payment under sub-section (1) of the costs referred to in that sub-section, such balance, or where no costs have been awarded or no application as aforesaid has been made within the said period of one year the whole of the said security deposits may, on an application made in that behalf in writing to the court by the person by whom the deposit have been made, or if such person dies after making such deposits, by the legal representative of such person be returned to the said person or to his legal a representative, as the case may be.

119. Execution of orders as to costs. - Any order as to costs under the provisions of this chapter may be produced before the principal civil court of original jurisdiction with the local limits of whose jurisdiction any person directed by such order to pay any sum of money has a place of residence or business and such court shall execute the order or cause the same to be executed in the same manner and by the same procedure as if it were a decree for the payment of money made by itself in a suit:

Provided that where any such costs or any portion there of may be recovered by an application made under sub-section (1) of section 115, no application shall lie under this section within a period of one year from the date of such order unless it is for the recovery of the balance of any costs which has been left unrealised after an application has been made under that sub section owing to the insufficiency of the amount of the security deposits referred to in that sub section.

CHAPTER XI
CORRUPT PRACTICES AND ELECTORAL OFFENCES

120. Corrupt practices. - The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purposes of this Act –

- (1) ‘Bribery’, that is to say, -
 - (A) any gift, offer or promise by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent of any gratification, to any person whomsoever, with the object, directly or indirectly of inducing –
 - (a) a person to stand or not to stand as, or to withdraw or not to withdraw from being a candidate at an election, or
 - (b) an elector to vote or refrain from voting at an election, or as a reward to –
 - (i) a person for having so stood, or not stood, or for having withdrawn or not having withdrawn his candidature; or
 - (ii) an elector for having voted or refrained from voting;
 - (B) the receipt of, or agreement to receive, any gratification, whether as a motive or a reward –
 - (a) by a person for standing or not standing as, or for withdrawing or not withdrawing from being, a candidate; or
 - (b) by any person whomsoever for himself or any other person for voting or refraining from voting, or inducing or attempting to induce any elector to vote or refrain from voting, or any candidate to withdraw or not to withdraw his candidature.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this clause the term gratification is not restricted to pecuniary gratifications or gratifications estimable in money and it includes all forms of entertainment and all forms of employment for reward but it does not include the payment of expenses bonafide incurred at, or for the purpose of, any election and duly entered in the account of election expenses referred to in Section 85.

- (2) ‘Undue influence’, that is to say, any direct or indirect interference or attempt to interfere on the part of the candidate, or his agent, or of any other person with the consent of the candidate or his election agent; with the free exercise of any electoral right:

Provided that –

- (a) without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of this clause any such person as is referred to therein who -
 - (i) threatens any candidate or any elector, or any person in whom a candidate or an elector is interested, with injury of any kind including social ostracism and ex-communication or expulsion from any caste or community; or

- (ii) induces or attempts to induce a candidate or an elector to believe that he, or any person in whom he is interested, will become or will be tendered an object of divine displeasure or spiritual censure, shall be deemed to interfere with the free exercise of the electoral right of such candidate or elector within the meaning of this clause.
- (b) a declaration of public policy or a promise of public action, or the more exercise of a legal right without intent to interfere with an electoral right shall not be deemed to be interference within the meaning of this clause.
- (3) The appeal by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent to vote or refrain from voting for any person on the ground of his religion, race, caste, community or language or the use of, or appeal to religious symbols or the use of, or appeal to national symbols such as the national flag or the national emblem for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of that candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of any candidate:

Provided that no symbol allotted under any rules made under this Act to a candidate shall be deemed to be a religious symbol or a national symbol for the purposes of this clause.

- (4) The promotion of, or attempt to promote, feelings of enmity or hatred between different classes of the citizens of India on grounds of religion, race, caste, community, or language by a candidate or his agent or any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent or any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of that candidate or for prejudicially affecting the election of any candidate.
- (5) The publication by a candidate or his agent or by other person, with the consent of a candidate or his election agent, of any statement of fact which is false, and which he either believes to be false or does not believe to be true, in relation to the personal character or conduct of any candidate, or in relation to the candidature, or withdrawal, of any candidate being a statement reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of that candidate's election.
- (6) The hiring or procuring, whether on payment or otherwise, of any vehicle or vessel by a candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent, or the use of such vehicle or vessel for the free conveyance of any elector (other than the candidate himself, the members of his family or his agent) to or from any polling station provided under section 45:

Provided that the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by an elector or by several electors as their joint cost for the purpose of conveying him or them to and from any such polling station or place fixed for the poll shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power:

Provided further that the use of any public transport, vehicle or vessel or any tramcar or railway carriage by any elector at his own cost for the purpose of going to or coming from any such polling station or place fixed for the poll shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause.

Explanation. – In this clause, expression ‘vehicle’ means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise and whether used for drawing other vehicles or otherwise.

- (7) The incurring or authorising of expenditure in contravention of section 85.
- (8) The obtaining or procuring or abetting or attempting to obtain or procure by a candidate or his agent or, by any other person with the consent of a candidate or his election agent, any assistance (other than the giving of vote) for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidate’s election, from any person in the service of a panchayat or of Government, and belonging to any of the following classes, namely: -
 - (a) gazetted officers;
 - (b) members of police forces;
 - (c) excise officers;
 - (d) revenue officers; and
 - (e) such other class of persons in the service of the Government as may be prescribed;

Provided that where any person, in the service of the Government and belonging to any of the classes aforesaid, in the discharge or purported discharge or this official duty makes any arrangements or provides any facilities or does any other act or thing, for, to, or in relation to, any candidate or his election agent or any other person acting with the consent of the candidate or his election agent, (whether by reason of the office held by the candidate or for any other reason), such arrangements, facilities or act or thing shall not be deemed to be assistance for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidates election.

- (9) Booth capturing by a candidate or his agent or other person acting with the consent of the candidate or his election agent.

Explanation 1. – In this section the any expression ‘agent includes an election agent, a polling agent and any person who is held to have acted as an agent in connection with the election with the consent of the candidate.

Explanation 2. – For the purposes of clause (8), a person shall be deemed to assist in the furtherance of the prospects of a candidate’s election if he acts as an election agent of that candidate.

Explanation 3.– For the purposes of clause (8), notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, the publication in the Gazette of the appointment, resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service of a person in the service of the Government or of a panchayat shall be conclusive proof –

- (i) of such appointment, resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service, as the case may be, and
- (ii) where the date of taking effect of such appointment resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service as the case may be, is stated in such publication; also of the fact that such person was appointed with effect from the said date, or in the case of resignation, termination of service, dismissal or removal from service, such person ceased to be in such service with effect from the said date.

Explanation 4. – For the purposes of clause (9), ‘both capturing’ shall have the same meaning as in section 137.

121. Promoting enmity between classes in connection with election. – Any person who in connection with an election, under this Act promotes or attempts to promote on grounds of religion, race, caste, community or language, feelings of enmity or hatred, between different classes of the citizens of India shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees or with both.

122. Prohibition of public meetings on the day preceding the election day and on the election day. – (1) No person shall convene, hold or attend any public meeting within a constituency during the period of forty-eight hours ending with the hour fixed for the conclusion of the poll for an election in that constituency.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

123. Disturbances at election meetings. – (1) Any person who at a public meeting to which this section applies, acts or incites others to act in a disorderly manner for the purpose of preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting was called together, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) This section applies to any public meeting of a political character held in any constituency between the date of the issue of a notification under this Act calling upon the constituency to elect a member and the date on which such election is held.

(3) If any police officer reasonably suspects any person of committing an offence under sub-section (1) he may, if requested so to do by the chairman of the meeting, require that person to declare to him immediately his name and address and, if that person refuses or fails so to declare his name and address, or if the police officer reasonably suspects him of giving a false name or address, the police officer may arrest him without warrant.

124. Restrictions on the printing of pamphlet, posters, etc. – (1) No person shall print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, any election pamphlet or poster which does not bear on its face the names and addresses of the printer and publisher thereof.

(2) No Person shall print, or cause to be printed any election pamphlet or poster –

(a) Unless a declaration as to the identity of the publisher thereof, signed by him and attested by two persons to whom he is personally known, is delivered by him to the printer in duplicate; and

(b) Unless, within a reasonable time after the printing of the document, one copy of the declaration is sent by the printer, together with one copy of the document printed to such officer as may be authorised by the State Election Commission in this behalf.

(3) For the purposes of this section, -

- (a) any process for multiplying copies of a document, other than copying it by hand, shall be deemed to be printing and the expression 'printer' shall be construed accordingly; and
- (b) 'election pamphlet or poster' means any printed pamphlet hand bill or other document distributed for the purpose of promoting or prejudicing the election of a candidate or group of candidates or any placard or poster having reference to an election, but does not include any hand-bill, placard or poster merely announcing the date, time, place and other particulars of an election meeting or routine instructions to election agents or workers.

(4) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of sub section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both.

125. Maintenance of Secrecy of voting. – (1) Every Officer, Clerk, agent or other person who performs any duty in connection with the recording or counting of votes at an election shall maintain, and aid in maintaining, the secrecy of the voting and shall not (except for some purpose authorised by or under any law) communicate to any person any information calculated to violate such secrecy.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.

126. Officers, etc. at elections not to act for candidates or to influence voting. – (1) No person who is a district election officer or a returning officer or an assistant returning officer or a presiding or polling officer at an election, or an officer or employee performing any duty in connection with an election shall in the context or the management of the election do any act (other than the giving of vote) for the furtherance of the prospects of the election of a candidate.

(2) No such person as aforesaid, and no member of police force, shall endeavour –

- (a) to persuade any person to give his vote at an election, or
- (b) to dissuade any person from giving his vote at an election, or
- (c) to influence the voting of any person at an election, in any manner.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.

(4) An offence punishable under sub-section (3) shall be cognisable.

127. Prohibition of canvassing in or near polling stations. – (1) No person shall, on the date or dates on which a poll is taken at any polling station, commit any of the following acts within the polling station or in any public or private place within a distance of two hundred metres of the polling station namely: -

- (a) canvassing for votes; or
- (b) soliciting the vote of any elector; or
- (c) persuading any elector not to vote for any particular candidate; or
- (d) persuading any elector not to vote at the election; or
- (e) exhibiting any notice or sign (other than an official notice) relating to the election.

(2) any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

128. Penalty for disorderly conduct in or near polling stations. – (1) No person shall on the date or dates on which a poll is taken at any polling station, -

- (a) use or operate within or at the entrance of the polling station, or in any public or private place in the neighbourhood thereof, any apparatus or amplifying or reproducing the human voice such as a megaphone or a loudspeaker, or
- (b) shout or otherwise act in a disorderly manner within or at the entrance of the polling station or in any public or private place in the neighbourhood thereof, so as to cause annoyance to any person visiting the polling station for the poll, or so as to interfere with the work of the officers and other persons on duty at the polling station.

(2) Any person who contravenes, or wilfully aids or abets the contravention of, the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

(3) Any police officer may take such steps and use such force as may be reasonably necessary for preventing any contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), and may seize any apparatus used for such contravention.

129. Penalty for misconduct at the polling station. – (1) Any person who during the hours fixed for the poll at any polling station misconducts himself or fails to obey the lawful directions of the presiding officer may be removed from the polling station by the presiding officer or by any police officer on duty or by any person authorised in this behalf by such presiding officer.

(2) the powers conferred by sub-section (1) shall not be exercised so as to prevent any elector who is otherwise entitled to vote at a polling station from having an opportunity of voting at that station.

(2) No application for permission to construct or re-construct a hut shall be refused without stating the reasons for such refusal.

235 U. Lapse of Permission. - Where the construction or reconstruction of a hut is not completed within the period specified in the permission, such permission shall lapse unless an application for extension of time is made before the expiry of the period specified.

235V. Application of the Provisions to alteration and additions. - The provisions of this Act and of any rule or bye-law made thereunder relating to construction and re-construction of buildings shall also be applicable to any alteration thereof or addition thereto:

Provided that repair works using materials of the same nature and value to keep the building as such without enhancing its value and without changing its occupancy and use and which do not affect the position or dimension of a building or any room therein shall not be deemed to be an alteration or an addition for the purpose of this section changing of roof or construction of walls by using a different material and other similar works which enhance the value of the building to any extent will not be treated as repair but as a new construction.

235 W. Demolition or alteration of building works unlawfully commenced, carrying on or completed. - (1) Where the Secretary is satisfied that –

(i) the construction, or reconstruction or alteration of any building -

(a) has been commenced without obtaining the permission of the Secretary or in contravention of the decision of the village panchayat; or

- (b) is being carried on, or has been completed otherwise than in accordance with the plans specifications, or information on which such permission or decision was based; or
 - (c) is being carried on, or has been completed in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or any rule or bye-law or order made or issued there under or any direction or requisition lawfully given or made under this Act, such rule, bye-law or order; or
- (ii) any alteration required by notice issued under section 235 N, has not been duly made; or
- (iii) any alteration of or addition to any building or any other work made or done for any purpose in or upon any building has been commenced or is being carried on or has been completed in contravention of the provisions of section 235-V, he may make a provisional order requiring the owner or the persons for whom the work is done, to demolish the work done, or any part of it as, in the opinion of the Secretary, has been unlawfully executed or to make such alteration as may be necessary to bring the work in conformity with the provisions of this Act, bye-laws, rules, direction, order or requisition as aforesaid, or with the plans and specifications on which such permission or decision was based, and may also direct that until the said order is complied with, the owner or such person shall refrain from proceeding with the work

Provided that the Secretary may, on realisation of a compounding fee as may be fixed by government, regularise any construction, re-construction, or alteration of the building, commenced, carried on or completed, without getting a plan approved by the Secretary or in deviation of the plan approved by him, if such construction or alteration of the building does not contravene any of the criteria or specifications mentioned in the Act or the rules made there under.

(2) The Secretary shall serve a copy of the provisional order made under sub-section (1) on the owner or the persons for whom such work is done together with a notice requiring him to show cause within a reasonable time, to be specified in such notice, why the order should not be confirmed.

(3) where the owner or the person for whom the work is done fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the Secretary, the Secretary may confirm the order or modify the order to such an extent as he may think fit to make and such order shall then be binding on the owner or the person for whom the work is done and on the failure to comply with the order, the Secretary may himself cause the building or part thereof, demolished, as the case may be, and expenses thereof shall be recoverable from the owner or such person.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), prosecution proceedings may be initiated against the owner or the person for whom the work is done.

(5) Where the Government is satisfied that the construction, re-construction or alteration of any building has been carried out in violation of any of the provisions of this Act or any rule made there under or any direction lawfully given by the Government or Secretary, the Government may direct the Secretary of the Village Panchayat to cause the demolition of such construction, re-construction or alteration and if such direction is not complied within the time limit specified in such direction, the Government may arrange its demolition and the cost there of shall be recovered from the Village Panchayat.

235. X. Order of stoppage of Buildings or works in certain cases. - (1) Where the erection of any building or the execution of any work has been commenced or is being carried on (but has not been completed) without obtaining the permission of the Secretary or in contravention of any decision of the Village Panchayat or any of the provisions of this Act or any rule or byelaw made there under or any lawful direction or requisition given or made under this Act, or the rules or byelaws, the Secretary may without prejudice to any other action that may be taken under this Act, by order require the person at whose instance the building or the work has been commenced or is being carried on, to stop the same forthwith.

(2) Where such order is not complied with, the Secretary may require any Police Officer to remove such person and all his assistants and workmen from the premises within the specified time on such application and the police officer will have to act accordingly.

(3) After complying with the requisition under sub-section (2), the secretary may, if he thinks fit, require in writing the assistance of a Police Officer or dispute by a written order an officer or employee of the Village Panchayat to watch the premises in order to ensure that the construction of the building or the execution of the work is not continuing and the cost thereof shall be paid by the person at whose instance such construction or execution was being continued or to whom notice under sub-section (1) was given, and shall be recoverable from such persons as arrears of property tax under this Act.

235 Y. Certain buildings or sheds exempted. - Any building constructed and used, or intended to be constructed and used, exclusively for the purpose of a plant-house; meter house, not being a dwelling house, or sheds which are used exclusively for keeping fuel, or fire wood for the domestic use of its owner or for keeping agricultural implements, tools, rubbish or other materials or for watching crops or kennel shed intended to keep not more than four dogs or cattle shed intended to keep not more than four cattles and its one calf each or poultry shed intended to keep not more than twenty hen, duck etc. or any other shed of temporary nature shall stand exempted from the provisions other than Sections 220 B and 235 E :
